mr. farley is also a teacher of business education . . .

. . . the REBEL Staff takes great pleasure in dedicating the 1971 REBEL to one who has worked hard in the preparation of material for the yearbook - our sponsor, mr. eugene farley - he has given time he could have used elsewhere in helping the members of the yearbook staff to face up to their responsibilities in getting their copy ready on time, in selling ads, and planning their lay-outs - we deeply appreciate all of the time and effort he has given to make our yearbook a success - mr. farley has been in our school for a number of years as a teacher of business education - his skill as a teacher, his feeling of fairness for all, and his devotion to his work has inspired many - mr. farley, the REBEL Staff salutes you as a teacher and as a sponsor; we wish you many more years in the profession you seem to like so much . . .

1971 . . . the second year of a new decade brimming with a vitality and spirit unlike any year before - students aren't just students any longer; they're individuals - they aren't accepting answers as those before them have but are searching, delving, probing the problems of youth today - the generation gap, the draft, war and peace, Vietnam, drugs - they are groping along the roads of life seeking a better tomorrow - they are involved, aware as never before - this has been a year of change, a year to "tell it like it is," not an end but a beginning, this is . . .

moods of the '71 generation

. . . between solving the world's problems and being an active part of W. M. the students of '71 still find time to "do their thing" - they're tuned in to what's "IN" - they dig the newest dance, the heaviest sound, the toughest rock group, the latest fashions - their music, their clothes, their ideas set them apart and make them the generation they are . . .

pat sherrill and rebecca burney groove to the sound of CLINTON with the latest dance . . .

CLINTON, a heavy group from birmingham, exploded into sound at the homecoming dance . . .

the new look?

. . . the big question in fashion today seems to be, "is the midi here to stay?" - fashion experts are debating the question among themselves and some are predicting the midi to be the "GO" for spring also - meanwhile at W M., the word is mini, maxi, midi, pants - phyllis dunn, deb mcguire, wayne blankenship, connie armstrong, and averie millwood really dig the "new look" for the '70-'71 season . . .

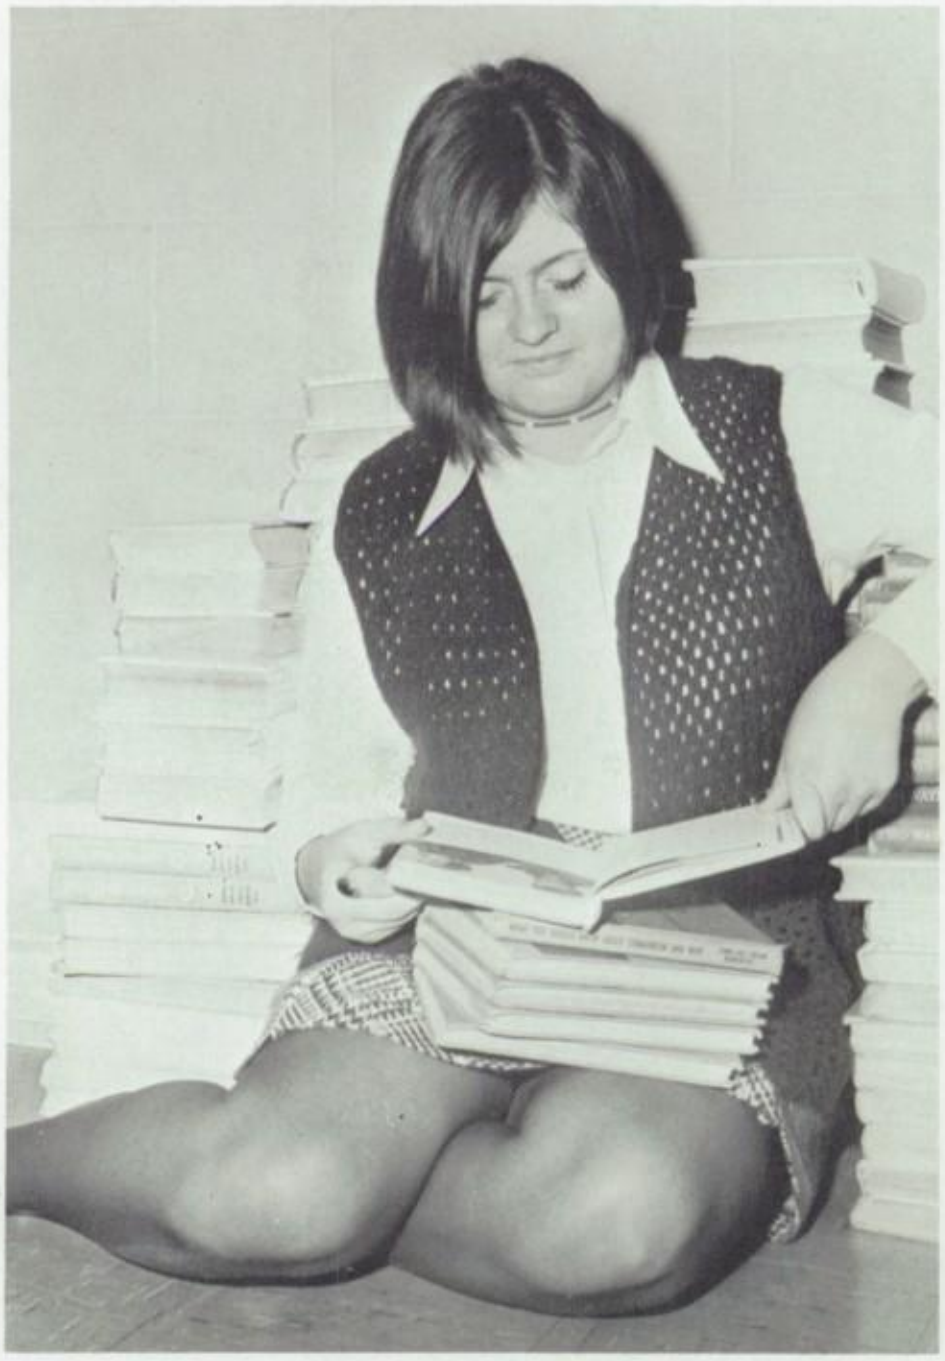
our faculty?? mr. lisenby, mr. bennett, mrs. morrow, mr. norris take a coffee break, relax, and discuss the latest gossip . . . ?

. . . being involved today is much more important than it has been in the past - our faculty is not composed of just teachers but people - people who are involved, who care, who take part and pride in making W. M. the best - "telling it like it is and was" is only part of their job - although they may not always understand our generation at least they're willing to listen and give our ideas a chance. . .

mrs. gonzales shows an astounded mike meadows how to say REBELS in Spanish . . .

mr. bennett, our new counselor, knows "where it's at" when it comes to colleges or vocations . . .

"the other end, mrs. hinds, the other end . . . !!!"



christle watkins finds that being a senior isn't all fun and games . . .

mr. howard, our groovy new chief executive, demonstrates that discipline is sometimes necessary for underclassmen . . .

Rebel Staff

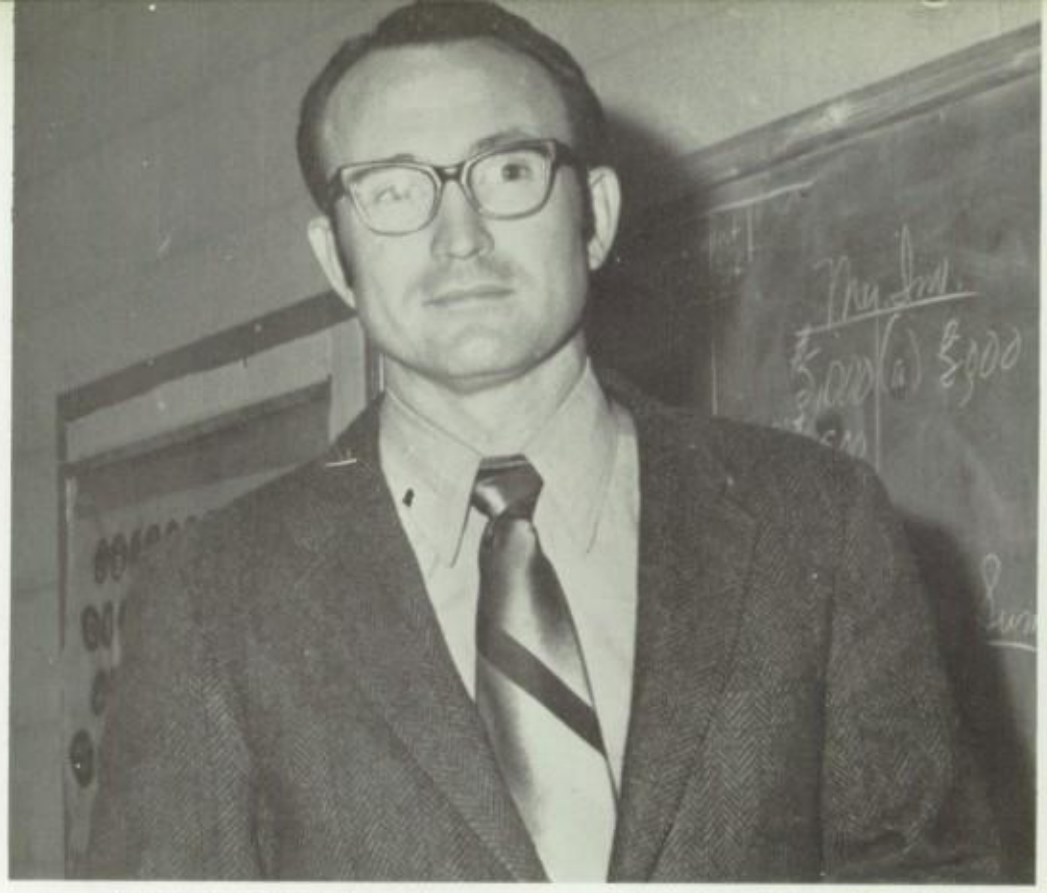
The REBEL STAFF members give up much of their time for the yearbook. At first glance, you may not realize that working on a yearbook is not just an enjoyable outside activity. Although it is enjoyable, it is extremely vast in its scope.

If you stop to realize that the staff is made up of students working together, and this staff has the responsibility of recording the events and activities of over one thousand students, you will see the tremendous job it involves.

Publishing a yearbook such as the REBEL is really a business operation, but the staff has many exciting memories, the hustle and bustle to meet the last minute deadlines and the happiness that was experienced when the last page was proofread and ready to mail.

The staff has gained immense experience in cooperating with others, not only with relations within the staff, but cooperating with clubs and organizations and other student body members.

This REBEL could not have been possible without the dedication, devotion, love and time of many people



EUGENE FARLEY, the sponsor of the Rebel Staff, gives up his time to help each member of the staff do his best job.

TERESA McENTIRE, Editor of "The Rebel" this year has worked diligently to make the annual a success.

In Memoriam

Donald L. Turner served as teacher and coach at West Morgan High School from 1968 to 1970. Those of us who knew him were aware that Coach Turner was an active man with a dynamic personality. He was a man whose competitive spirit was in evidence in the classroom as well as on the athletic field. We at West Morgan feel a great loss at his passing. His memory will long be honored here as coach, teacher, and friend.

The Rebel Story

Their season began on a cold, damp, Thursday night in which they were beaten 6 to 0, by East Limestone. The next week the Rebs jumped back in and smashed Hatton 38 to 8. Their glory was short lived as the Blue Devils of Falkville put out the Rebs fire with the score of 14 to 0. With determined minds, the Rebs once again went out on the field against Courtland taking the show off the field to the tune of 28 to 12. The following week, the Rebs roared on the field looking for a victory which they found 31 to 0. This victory spoiled the Homecoming party for the Celements Colts. As the LCHS Devils entered the field, the Rebels started a fire which was not put out. The blaze grew higher and higher reaching the final score of 21 to 0. At our Homecoming the Rebs came on strong to put down Holly Pond. The Broncs had been beaten only twice, once by the no. 2 team in the state and the number 5 team in the state. The victorious Rebs left the field with a 21-0 triumph. The following week brought a bad break for Rebels which were beaten by Town Creek 24 to 14. With fire in their eyes the Rebs fought back to find an easy victory over West Limestone 9 to 6. The season was finished with a 19 to 15 victory over Ardmore.

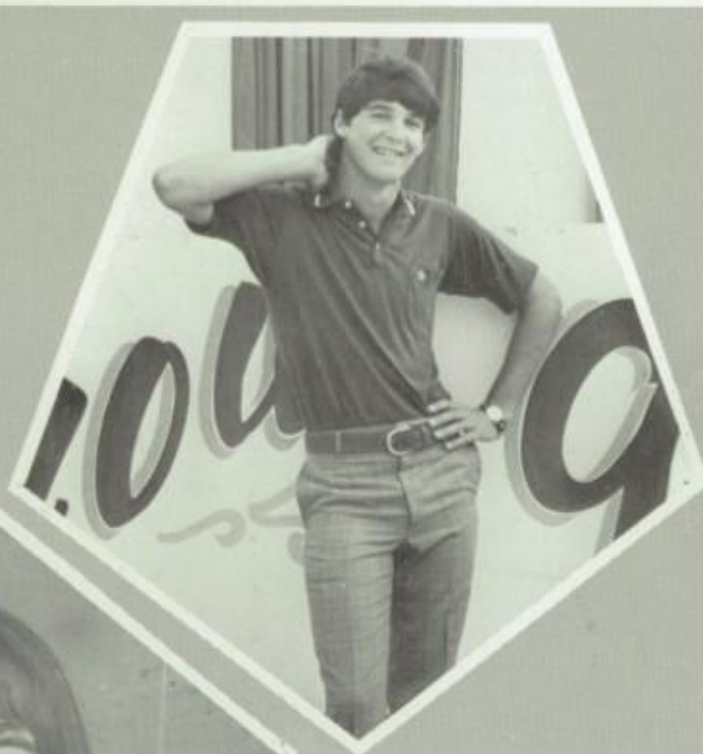
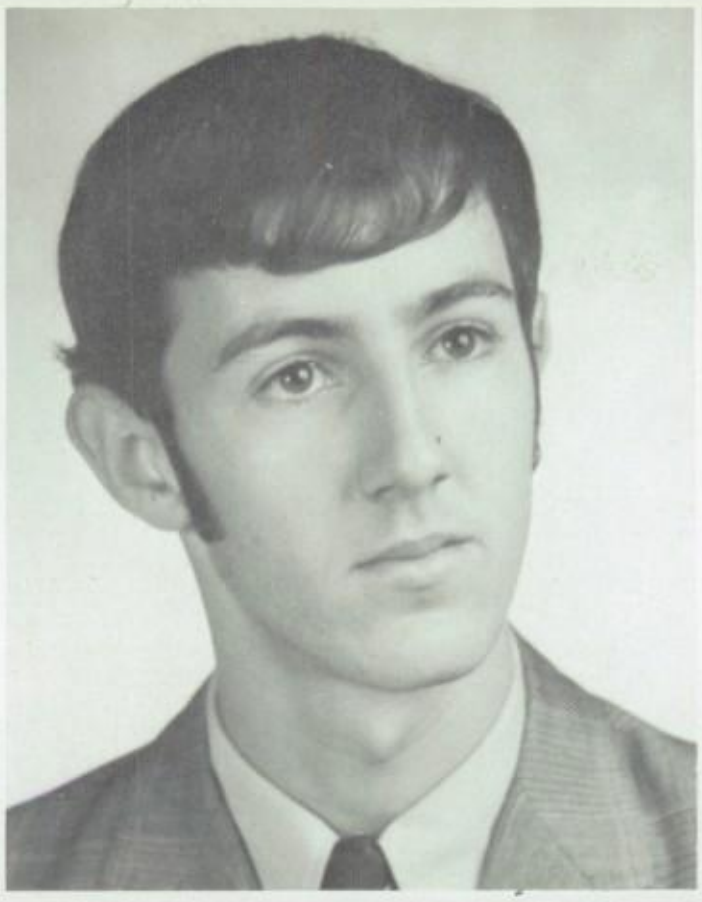
Senior Class Officers of 1971



President —
Kurt Jackson
Vice President —
Beth Nelms
Secretary —
Theresa McEntire
Treasurer —
Bobby Carter

SUSAN PAULETTE ALEXANDER - "Much could be said about her, if one could read her mind."



STEVEN JOSEPH BARKETT - "Happy, unconcerned, he came to class and sometimes learned."

LINDA GAYLE BICE - "Let me speak; otherwise I cannot be happy."

"Every day we all take a trip;
Not a 15¢ one on a subway
But one around the school,
Some of us notice,
Others - well, they exist,
I took the trip around the school
that I take every day,
Only this time I tried to make myself by more aware
Of the things around me,
I saw a different school than that one of Halls I'd walked

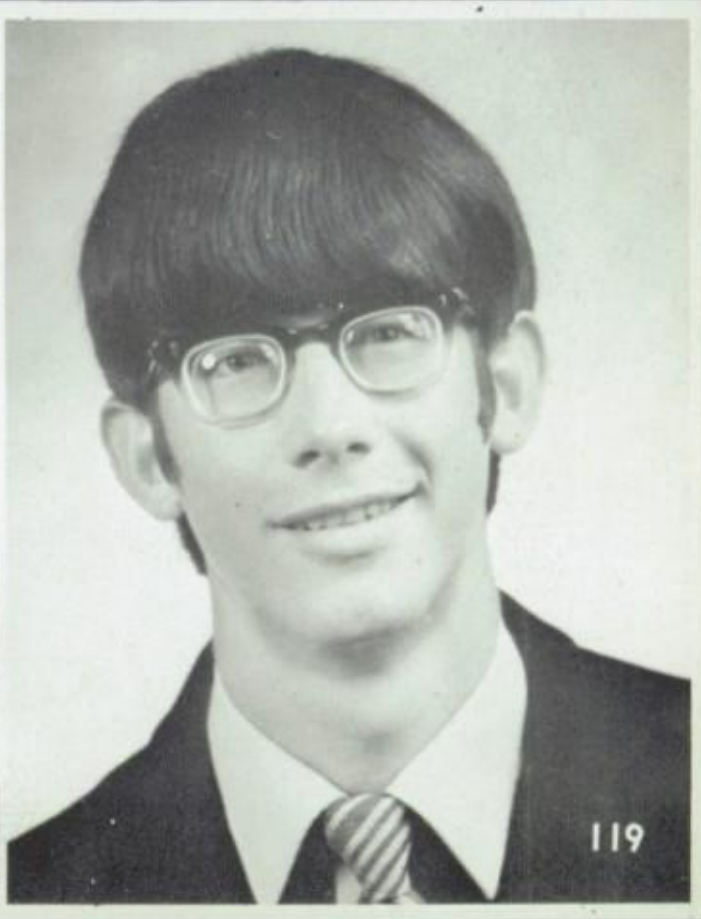
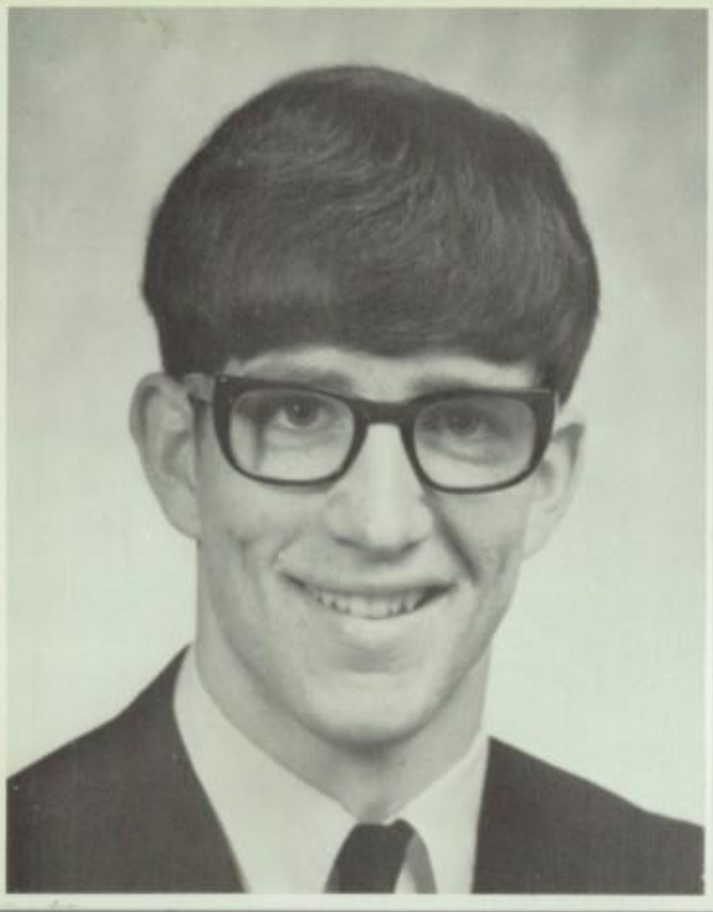
WILLIAM HAROLD BLACK JR. - "Dignified and self-possessed, quiet men are always best."

VIKKI LYNN BOSHERS - "Here's to a new and pretty lass - quite an asset to our class."



RICKY JOE BOWLING - "A basketball hero, who has won much fame fighting for us in every game."



RICHARD TILMAN BRANUM, JR. - "Let me be what I am and seek not to alter me."

REBECCA LYNNE BURNEY - "If you can't say what you think, why think?"

DEBBIE LYNN CALHOUN - "She does her best at everything she attempts."

And desks I'd sat in before,
I even noticed the cool breeze that frequently enters the mall and Gently sways the trees and plants
In the garden.
"As I walked my mind began to wander.
It thought about time - how it runs so fast and will not Stop for anyone.

ROBERT JOSEPH CARTER - "Individualism is the ability to be yourself, to achieve more, and to become greater."

EMMA JEAN CATER - "I agree with no man's opinions; I have some of my own.

MYRA CLARK - "Our thoughts and our conducts are our own."

PAULA SHARRON COHN - "I can resist anything but temptation."

CYNTHIA ANN COLLUMS - "A smile for every girl and two for every boy."

MARGARET L. COWART - "If I love you, what business is that of yours?"

For it belongs to the sun and only the sun will determine Its destination
"Seems like yesterday," we all seem to say.
Yesterday. When we were small and Mommy and Daddy held Our hands and we lived in a world of fantasy.
But what was fantasy then is reality now.
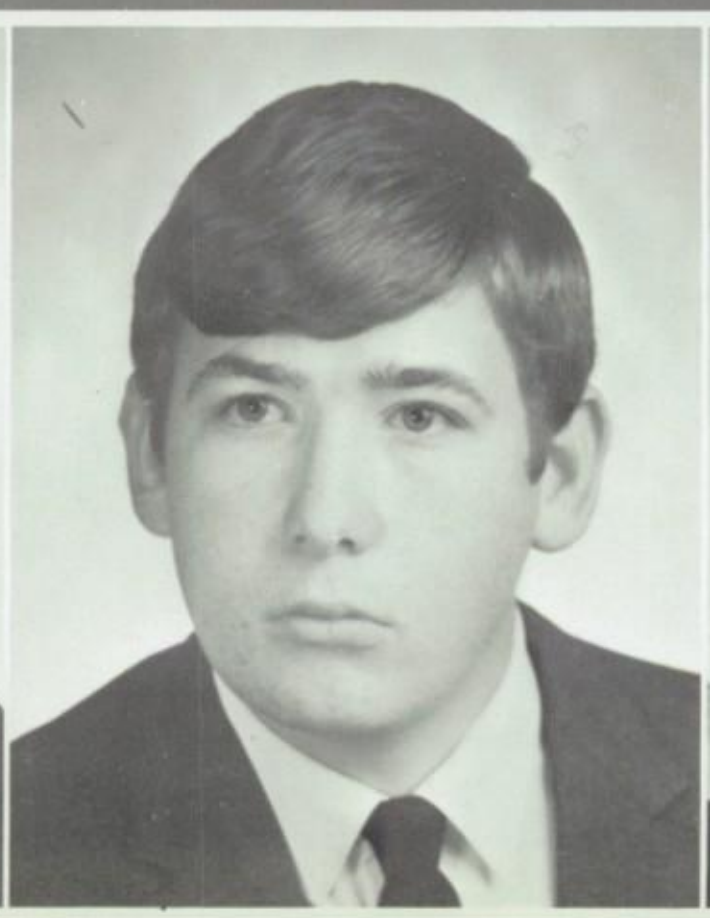
Today is today - now is now.

ROBERT JOE CURRY - "West Morgan loves a sportsman true and so we pin our "WM" on you."

DAVID EUGENE DAVIS - "Wisdom is divided into two parts: having a lot to say and not saying it."

DEBBIE JEAN DAVIS - "Behind those eyes much mischief lies."



JOE R. DAVIS - "You may have noticed that I'm no wordy man."

MARSHA JOAN DOCKERY - "Not so tall, really quite small, dear and sweet and loved by all."

PHYLLIS ANN DUNN - "Good things come in small packages."

And tomorrow today will be yesterday,
For we are merely the recipients
of time,
We are growing up
And every day the world had something new in store for us,
If we would only take the time to find it.

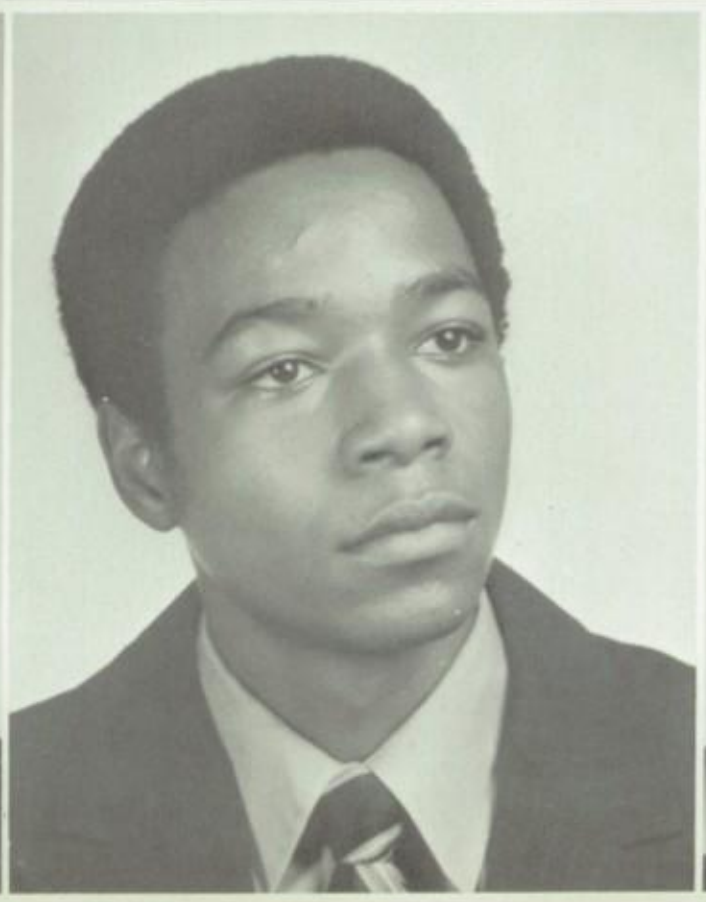
ROGER GLENN FRENCH - "I don't know where I am going, but I am on my way."



CALVIN GARTH - "Beware of shy men, they are the most dangerous."

DEBRA ANN GARTH - "She's gentle, she's shy, but there's mischief in her eye."

LINDA GALE GARTH - "She's a girl who likes her fun; still she has her work well done."

JOYCE DIANNE HENDERSON - "Come back in five minutes and I'll be in trouble."

VIRGINIA CAROL HILL - "Always smiling, always gay."

"I saw the same old people I had known for years,
But this time I saw the Individual personality among the masses,
I saw new faces -
New because this time I could see the minds
Behind them,
I noticed that some of these people
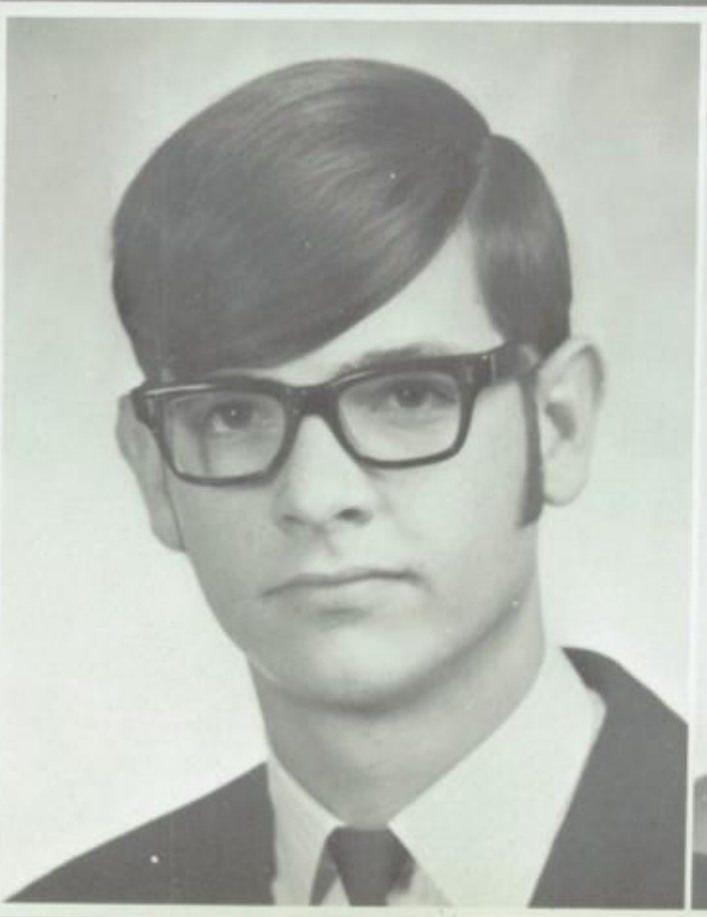
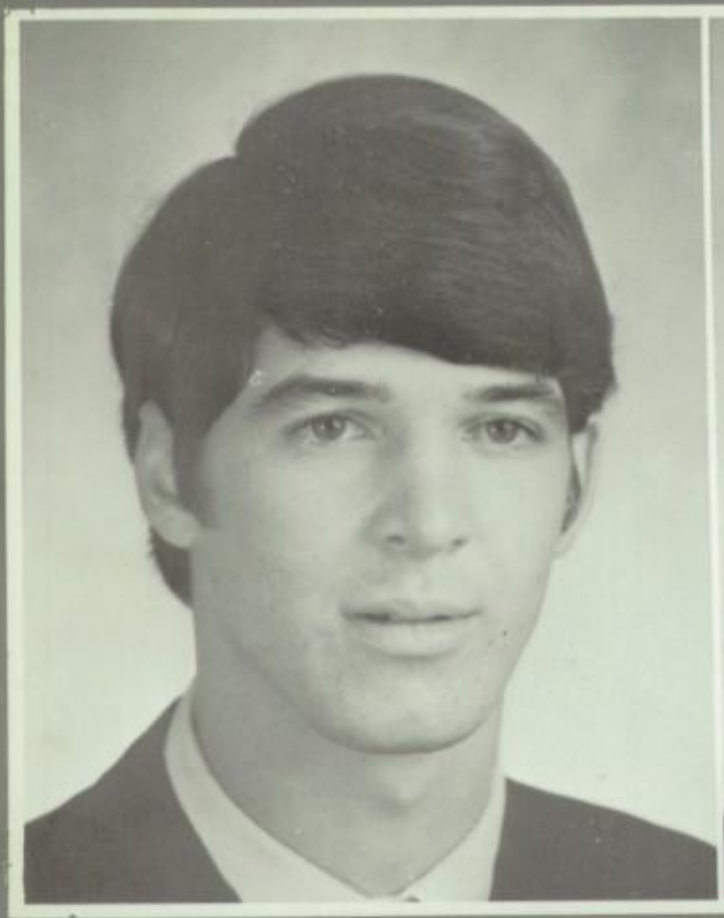
Had found themselves.

DOTTIE KAY BRASWELL HUGHES - "Good nature is the soil in which friendship prospers."



RAYBURN CLAY HUGHES - "I sit and think but most time I just sit."

EVIE JANETTE HURTH - "A good time is worth living for."



KURT ROBERT JACKSON - "A handsome lad, a sportsman true - in everything he tries to do."

ANTHONY LYNN JONES - "It isn't what you do, it's what you get caught doing."

CHARLOTTE FAYE KNOP - "Her cares were never to offend and every creature was her friend."

"They knew what they wanted from life -
And they all tried to achieve their goals
They all had something
To talk about -
Either ideas to express
Or opinions to suggest,
I overhead some talking about the war
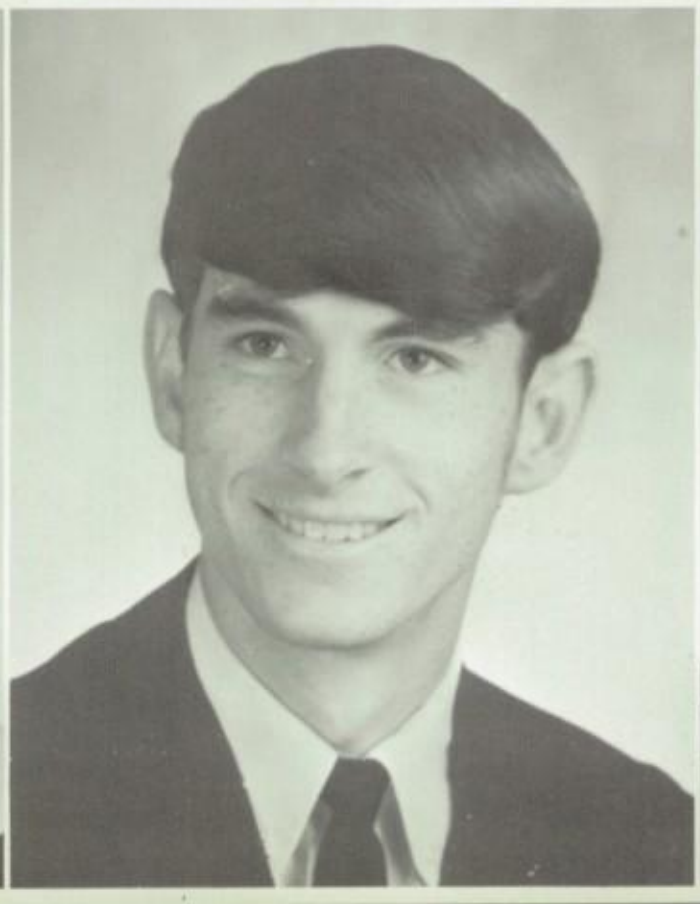
In Vietnam . . .
And the new generation gap . . .

VALERIE DENISE LAKE - "It's nice to be natural when you're naturally nice."



RANDALL LENTZ LAMON - "He puts his worries in a pocket with a hole in it."

JIMMY WAYNE LAW - "Not over serious, not too gay, but a likeable fellow in every way."

DEBBIE JEAN LONG - "Ah Life! For what is not better than to enjoy it?"

MICHAEL RAY LOVE - "Have a good time today for tomorrow you may not have a chance."

CAMELLIA JEANIENE LOWERY - "Friend to all; foe to none."

"There were others, still,
Who thought about different things,
They talked about the game
Friday night,
Last night's homework
Or the victory dance,
They followed the fads and were extra friendly to everyone,
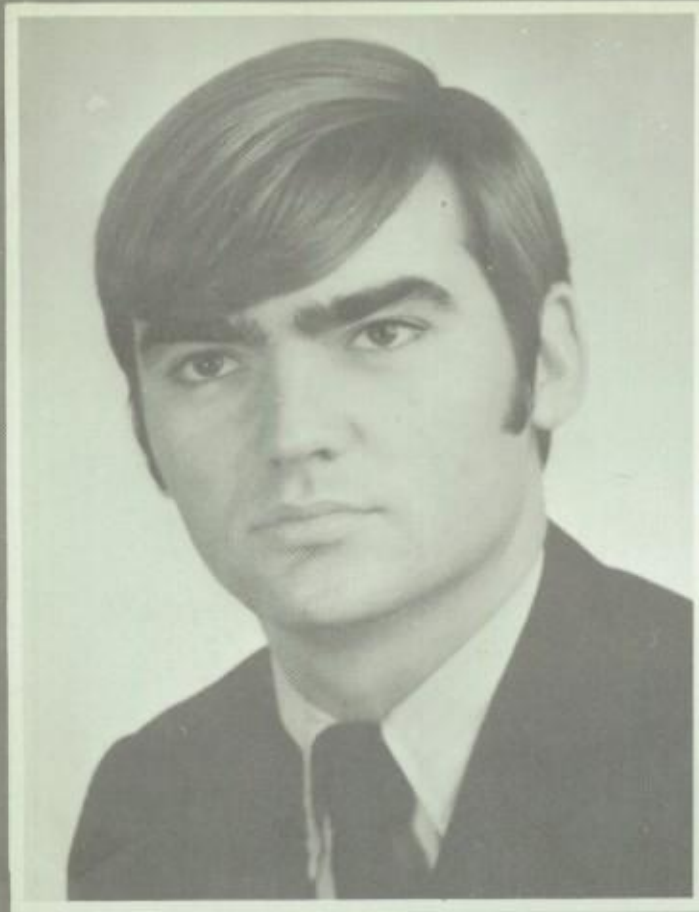
For popularity was their thing,
And they were happy.

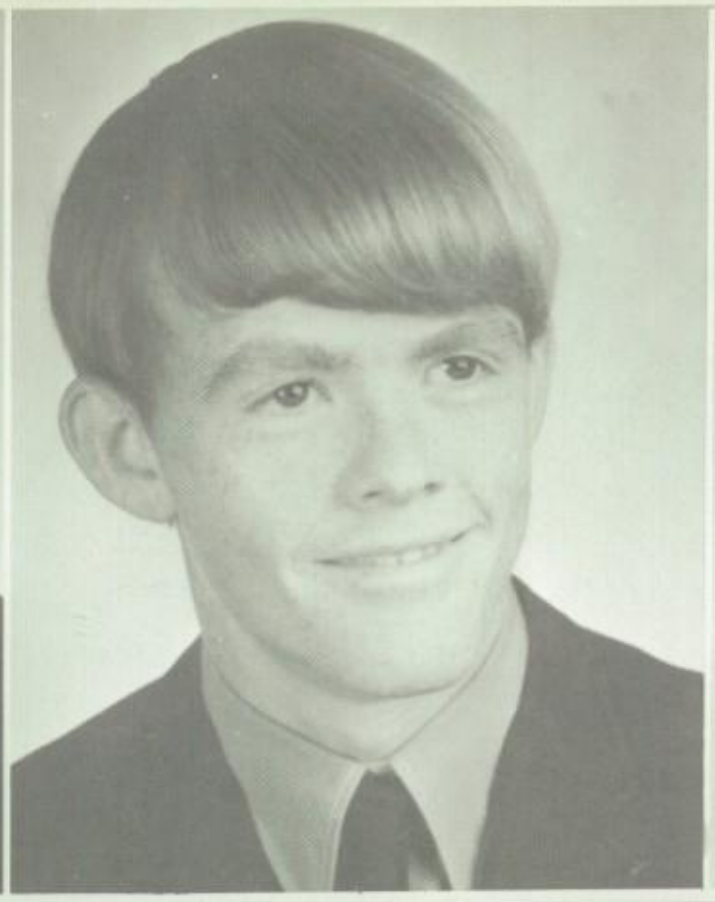
CHARLOTTE McDONALD - "Don't judge her heart by the size of her shadow."

TERESA McENTIRE - "Her qualities outnumber her inches." -

BRENDA KAYE MEARES - "Strive for that which can be obtained - like a diamond."



AVERIE DEAN MILLWOOD - "I envy no man who knows more than myself but I pity them who know less."



RICHARD DAVID MONTGOMERY - "Like a stick of dynamite - small but explosive."

MARY ANN HOPPER MOONEY - "Married life is quite agreeable."

Yes, I saw many types of people that day -
But they all seemed to belong
To two distinct groups,
Either social or anti-social,
And they each seemed to be condeming
The other for their Beliefs,
"But why worry about someone else's beliefs,
As long as I am content with mine?

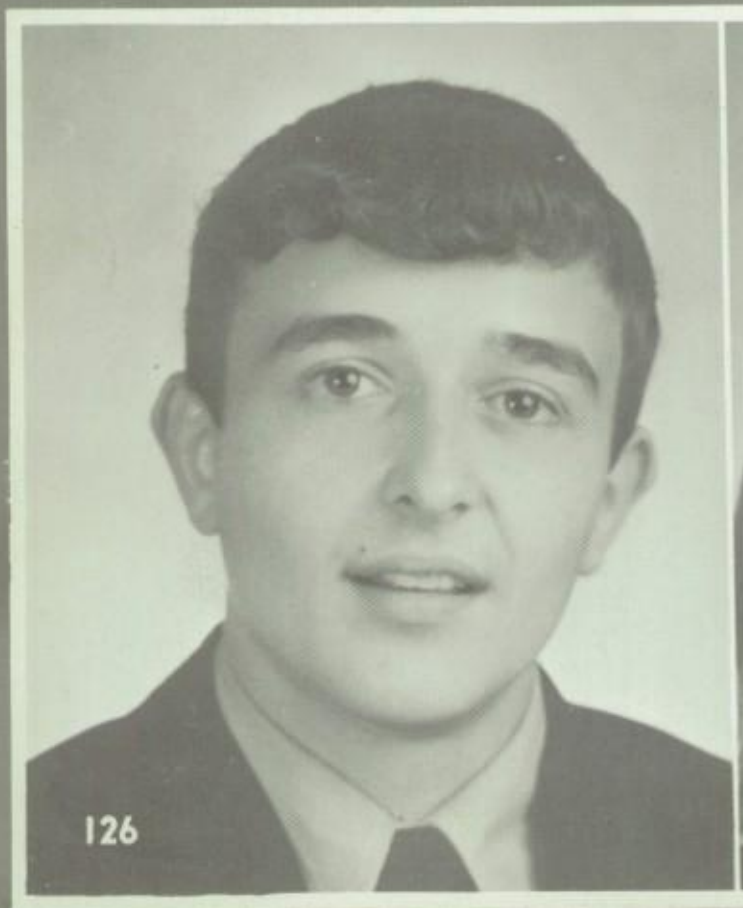
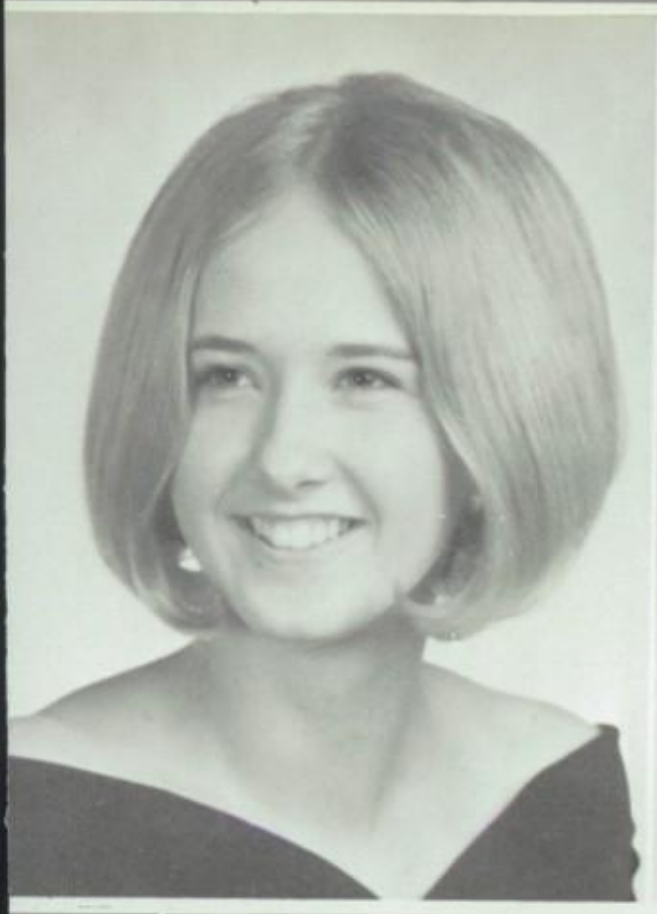
MYRON GILBERT MOONEY - "One of those fellows you just can't help liking."

LAURA GALE MOORE - "Versatile, lovable, friendly, sweet and the kind of girl you seldom meet."

PAUL EDWARD NAVE - "Some people drink at the fountain of knowledge, I just gargle."





MARY BETH NIEMS - "Some think the world was made for fun and frolic and so do I."

MARILYN ELAINE OGLES - "She's got more good points than a box of tacks."

SHARON DIANE OGLES - "Her tongue, like a brooklet runs forever."

We all have our own ideas
about life,
And no matter what one believes
If he is truly happy
Then it is a beautiful thing,
indeed,
"And as I walked past the classrooms,
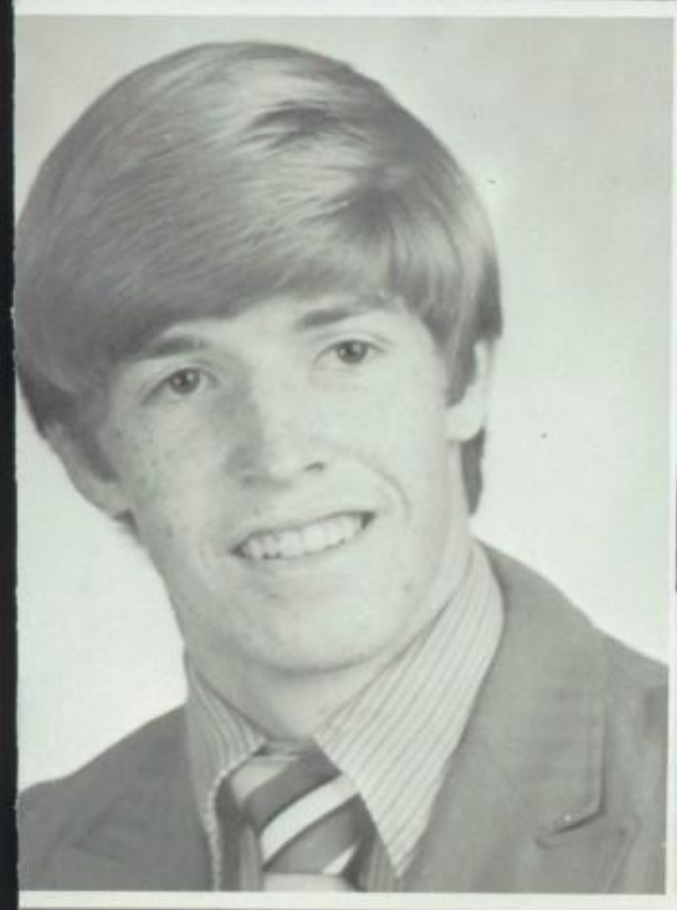
I didn't see 'teachers' anymore,
Nor did I see 'students.'

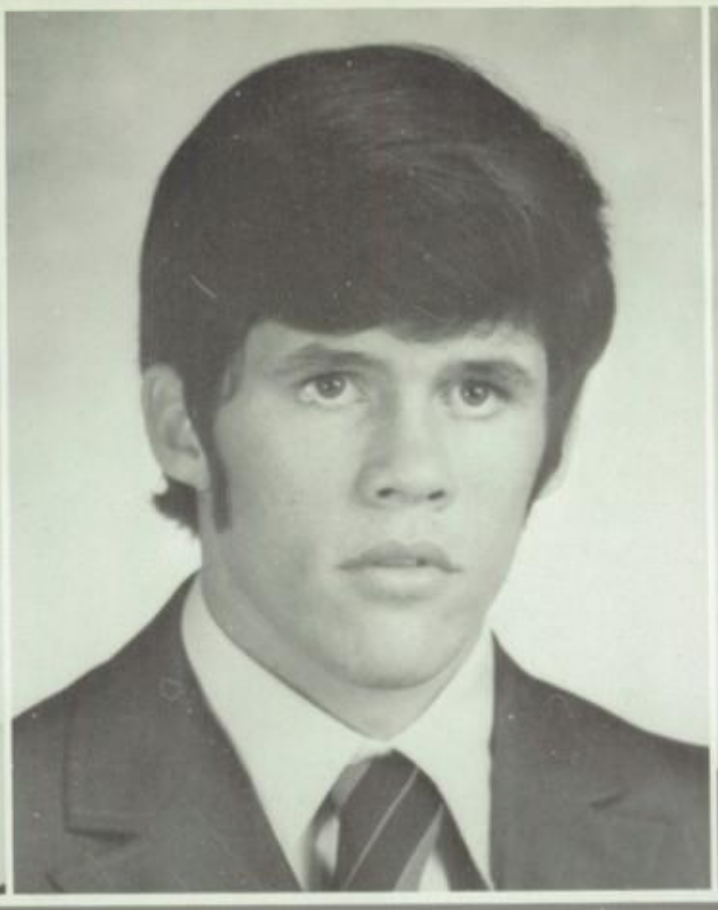
LARRY STEVEN OWENS - "If you see a crowd of women, it's either a sale or Woozie!"



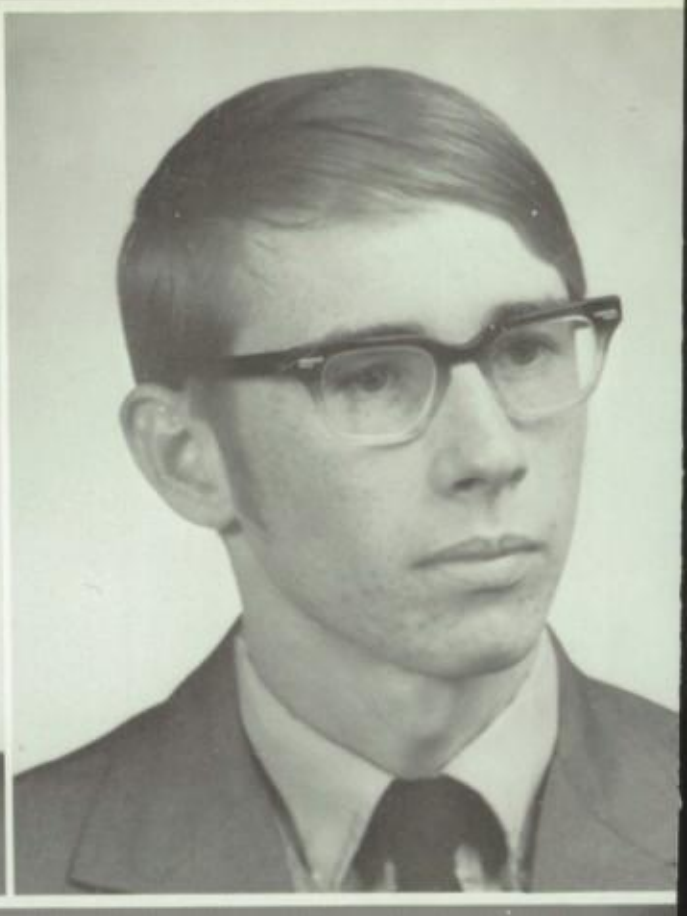
BEVERLY JANE PACE - "If I'm noisy I'm okay, but if I'm quiet take my temperature."

MARGARET ANN SMITH POWELL - "Her future is planned; third finger left hand."

PEGGY ANN REEVES - "When in doubt; giggle."



DONIE O'NEAL RICE - "Never take life too serious; you'll never get out of it alive."



ROBERT CLARK RUSSELL JR. - "Give every man thine ear, but few thy voice."

Instead I saw a person who had Acquired a quantity of knowledge sharing
It with those who hadn't found it yet.
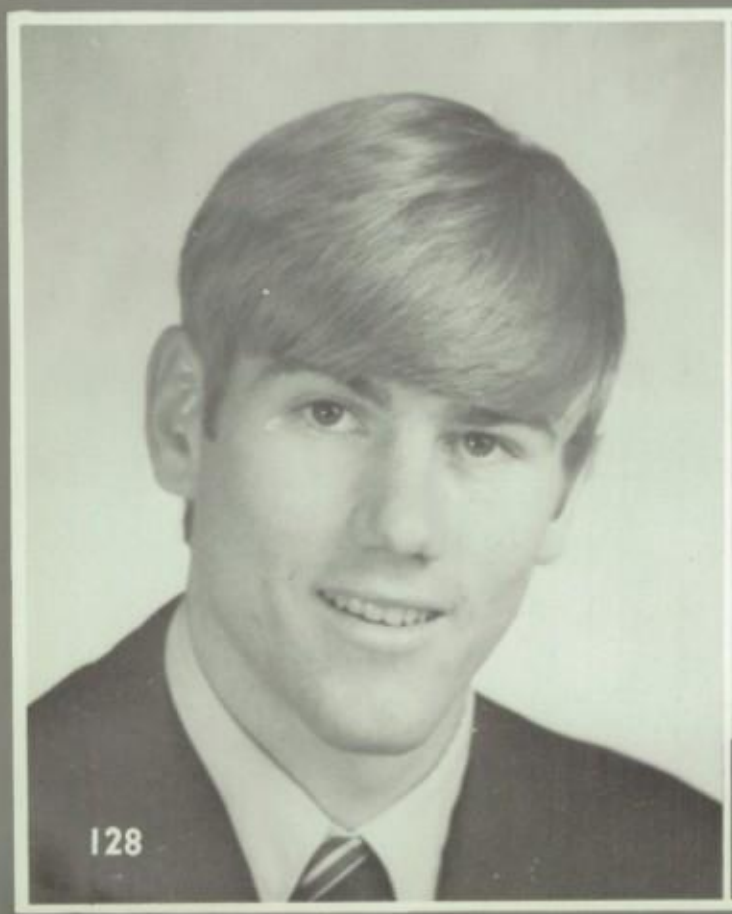
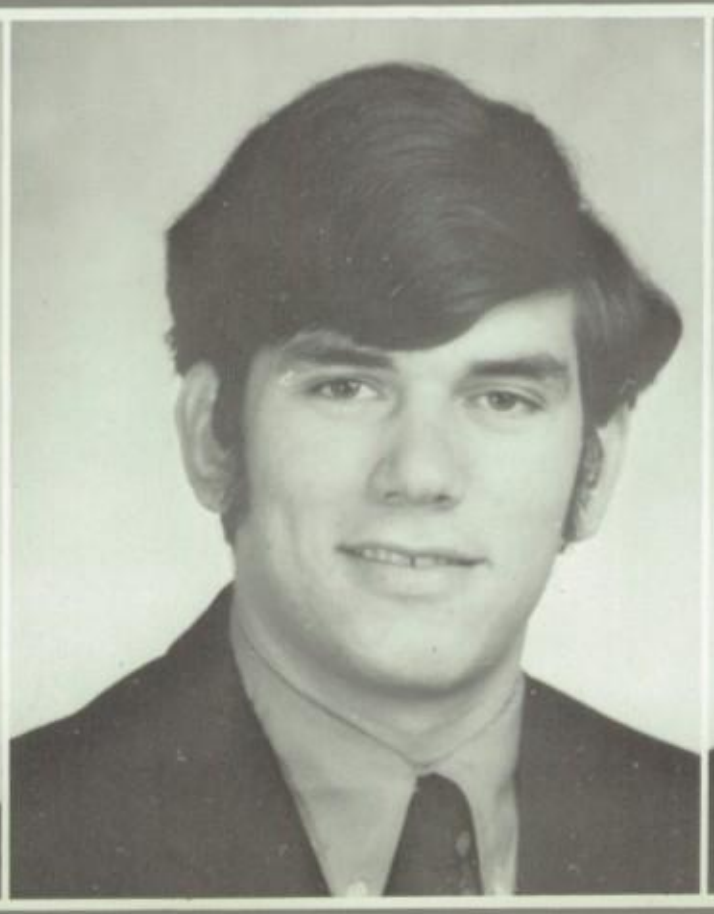
"And in the library I didn't
See the books anymore.
Instead I saw a library
Filled with love.
Love of the minds to read
The words

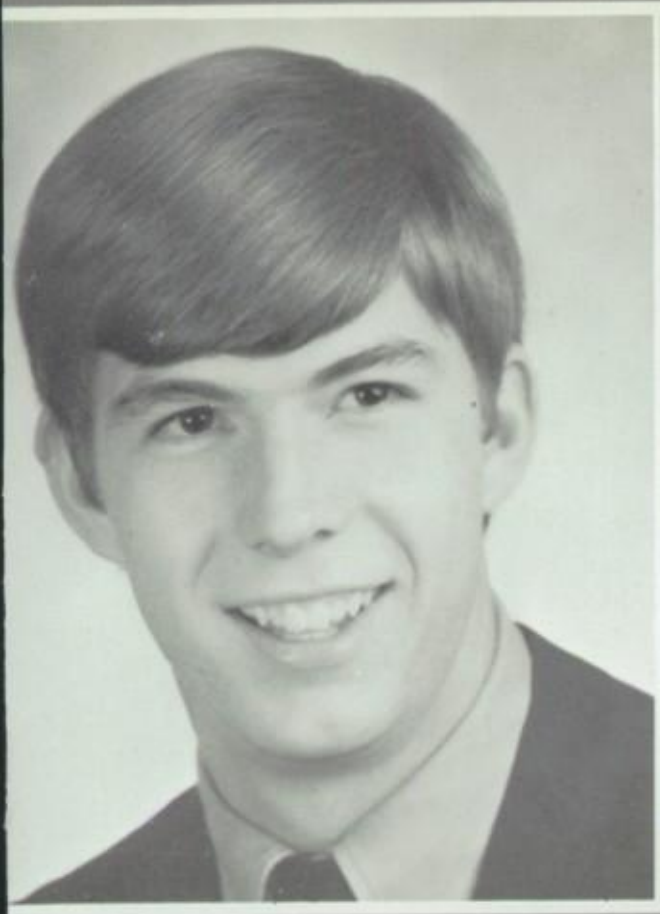
ROGER KELVIN RUSSELL - "There is no reason for it, it's just my policy."

JERRY WAYNE SCOTT - "Everything comes to those who wait - Why hurry?"

ARNOLD JACKSON SHELL - "Never quiet, never still, always talking, always will."

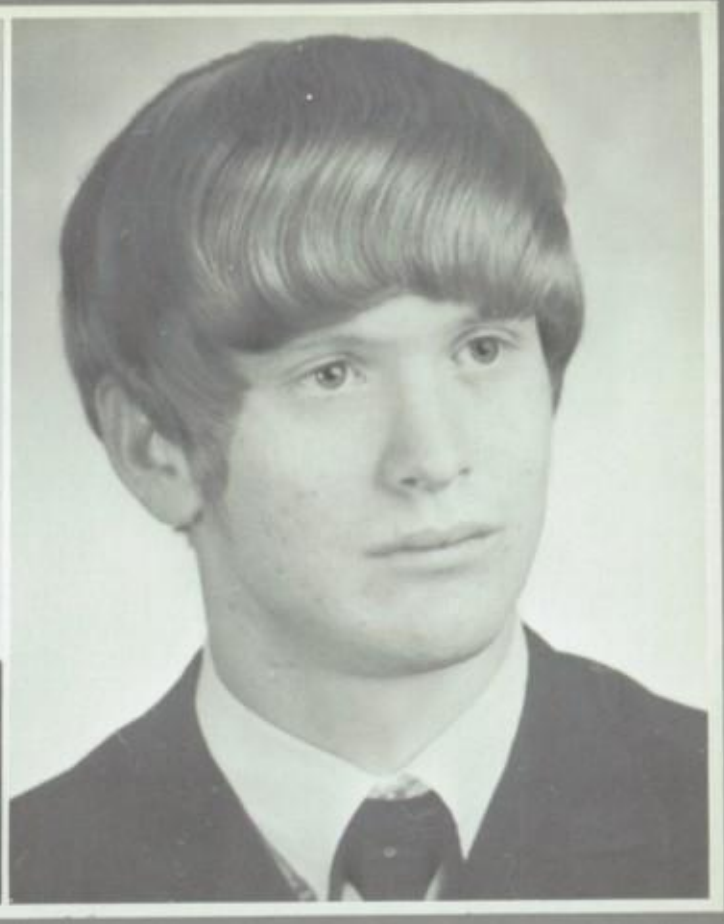






DONALD LOWAYNE SHELTON - "A guy so smooth he could slide on sandpaper."

DARRELL EUGENE SMITH - "Whatever he did was done with so much ease, in him alone 'twas natural to please."



J. WAYNE STOVER - "Bother me not with trivials."

And love of the words to Inform the minds,
"I saw love in the eyes of the Mathematician for his equation;
Love in the eyes of the Artist for his paint;
"Love in the eyes of the
Singer for his song;
And love in the eyes of the Scientist for his problems,
"I began to see things more clearly.

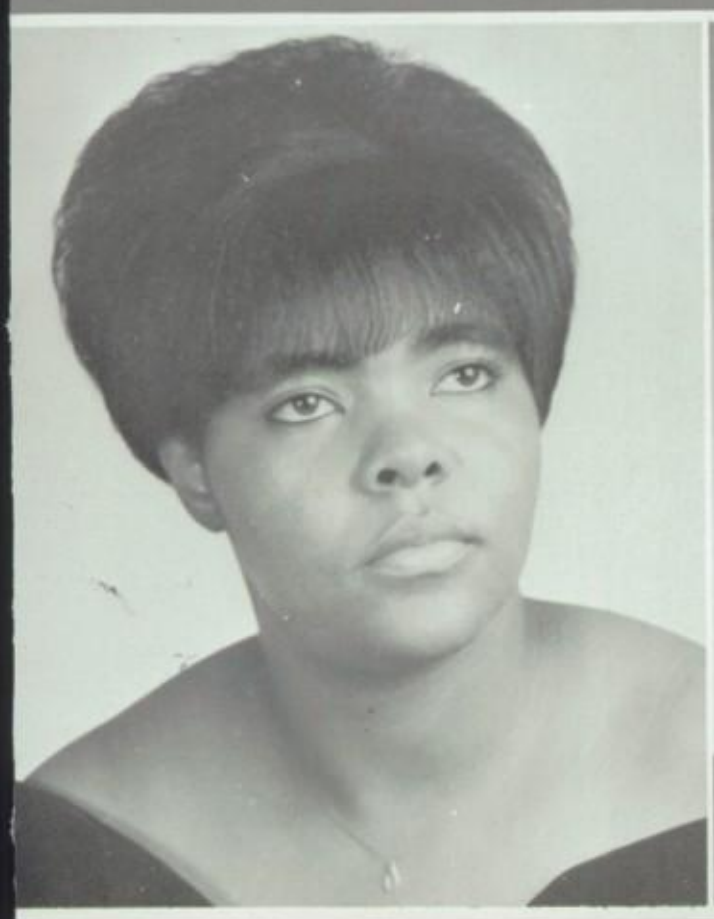
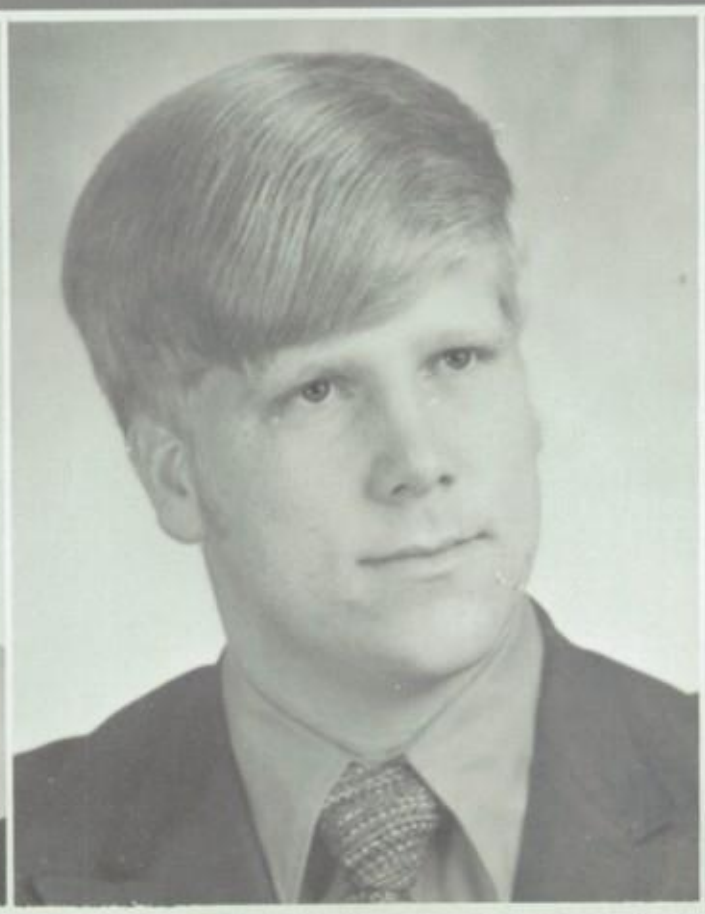
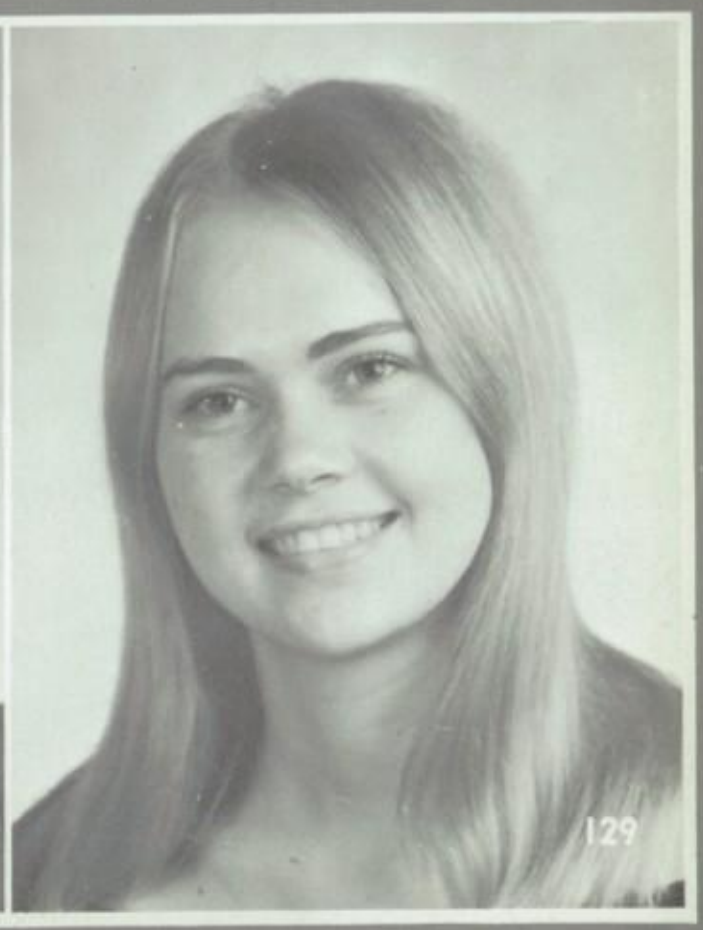
LEONARD ANN STOVER - "Love all, trust a few, do wrong to none."

DAVID ALLEN STYERS JR. - "In agrument he shows great skill for even though he loses he'll argue still."

DEBORAH LOIS TURNER BLAIR - "In numerous ways warmly pure and sweetly strong."







BESSIE MAE WATKINS - "A good character shines by its own rays."

CHRISTLE GAYE WATKINS - "Always laughing, never sad, sometimes naughty never bad."

And as I neared the end of my trip I still wondered What it was all about -
Where time has gone.
But then I realized
That as long as the sun keeps shining
Time will not run out -
So why not sit back and enjoy life
By finding all the beautiful things it
Has for everyone?
Especially as SENIORS,
For we are the future of tomorrow.

ELIZABETH ANN WILLIAMS - "The force of her own merit wins her way."

HOWARD WILLIAMS - "Basketball and girls are his main delight - the first for daytime, the second for night
